PALACE AUDIO: FAQS

What is Palace Audio?
Palace Audio enables you to listen to live audio commentary of every Crystal Palace FC game in the Premier League and domestic cup competitions via the club’s official app (https://www.cpfc.co.uk/fans/official-app/), or via https://eagles.cpfc.co.uk/palace-audio/.

The service is available to all fans around the world, but payment is only currently available in GBP.

How much does the service cost?
You can buy a season pass for £39.99 (which equates to less than £1 per game), a monthly pass (which auto-renews) at £4.49 per month, or a 24 hour pass (for a single matchday) for £1.49.

If you intend to purchase a 24 hour pass, please only do so on the day of the match you are wishing to access.

How do I register for the service?
You must first register for a free Palace One Account (https://login.cpfc.co.uk) and then login.

Then click here https://eagles.cpfc.co.uk/palace-audio/, choose your subscription and pay.

You cannot currently purchase direct from the app.

What devices does Palace Audio work on?
Palace Audio can be accessed across desktop computers, tablet and mobile devices via https://eagles.cpfc.co.uk/palace-audio/ or through the club’s official app in the Palace TV section.

If I buy on the website, will it work on my CPFC app?
Yes. As long as you’re using the same Palace One Account login details, it will sync.

Can I use my phone for other things whilst listening to the commentary on the app?
Yes. Please ensure you’re running the very latest version of the app for this functionality.

When does the commentary stream begin on matchdays?
30 minutes prior to kick-off.

If I subscribed to the former Palace Player service will I automatically join Palace Audio?
No. Palace Player was provided by the EFL whereas Palace Audio is run by CPFC, so you’ll need to create a new account and sign up again to access the new platform.
What happens if no games occur in my subscription period?
If you are on a monthly package it is an accepted risk that some months will have more live fixtures than others so no refund will be given in those cases.
